DESCRIPTION

Previously an exhibition hall, brewery and amusement park, the history of this venue is varied and unique. The building's modernist architecture and futuristic design create a striking site set against Barcelona's lush hilly background.

The venue is made up of 2 large circular rooms, one above the other. The main room is ideal for conferences, banquets and exhibitions. Below this, is another slightly smaller meeting room but equally suitable for large corporate events, or can be used a reception and breakout area. This location also comes with a large terrace on 2 levels which surround the building (the front terrace is only available from 16:00 for events).

Please note the price stipulated is only venue hire. The venue offer various event packages with full AV facilities and catering solutions.
