DESCRIPTION

Our "adventure world for agile work" is located in Steinheim an der Murr, in the middle of the beautiful Bottwartal.

The room is used both for the presentation of meeting and conference room furniture, as well as events. Due to the open design, the surfaces can be flexibly adapted in size and features. The focus lies in the combination of furniture with the latest conference technology.

Organizers of open space events love the space. There are more than 10 different sized berths, as well as a large plenary room that can accommodate up to 100 people.

The industrial look combined with state-of-the-art communication media give this room an extraordinary and special flair

We are happy to fulfill your individual wishes.
